

Secondary Teacher Employment Opportunity

Ditidaht Community School

- Are you looking for an adventure?
- Do you want to work with an innovative team of educators who are committed to high levels of learning for all students?
- Do you plan highly engaging lessons and possess a passion for your craft?
- Are you looking for an outdoor living adventure in a pristine setting?

If you answered “Yes!” to these questions, you just might be the right person to fill an exciting Secondary Teaching position at Ditidaht Community School.

Ditidaht Community School is located in Traditional Territory of the Ditidaht First Nation at Nitinaht Lake: a semi-remote community accessible by logging roads - approximately one and a half hours by gravel road from Port Alberni and one hour by gravel road from Lake Cowichan on beautiful Vancouver Island. The community of Nitinaht has a population of approximately 225 with 48 students registered at Ditidaht Community School in Kindergarten through grade 12.

Education is an extremely important aspect of Ditidaht culture. Ditidaht Community School seeks to respectfully guide each student through their educational journey and help them develop life goals by providing them with excellence in both academic and cultural education.

We are a dynamic group of teachers and students, and though we are a small school, we take the educational experience to a whole new level with innovative teaching.

As an example of this, please check out the music videos created by our students with N'we Jinan(<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UWv4K06wBzland>, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=viuhYTEvbe0>), and our school Facebook page ‘Ditidaht Community School’.

Position Summary:

If you are adventurous, flexible, committed to quality, and passionate in teaching, this position has a lot to offer you. This position involves all aspects of teaching in a growth mindset environment. We know the impact teachers have in the classroom and make every effort to support teacher learning and growth.

Our school has a strong focus on language and culture, individualized learning, literacy, and numeracy. If you are committed to high levels of learning for all students and being a team player, willing to collaborate with others, this could be a great fit for you.

Salary and Benefits:

- Competitive wages.
- Housing included & moving allowance.
- Benefits package & RRSP program.
- Opportunities for professional development.
- Contract completion incentive.
- Monday – Thursday school week.
- Team-oriented, collaborative work environment.

Application Process:

Start Date: As soon as possible.

Please submit the following:

- Cover letter
- Resume
- BC Ministry of Education Teacher Certificate
- Minimum of three professional references

to Emily MacLennan, maclennane@ditidahtschool.ca

For further information about this position please contact Ditidaht Community School Principal, Emily MacLennan, at (250) 745-3223.

We thank all applicants for their interest but advise that only those applicants who are under consideration will be contacted.